

FROM THE QUARTERDECK

AUGUST 2009

Seven years ago, a committee of hard working volunteers, led by Bev Crump and Jim Rogers, and buoyed by hundreds of generous members, succeeded in funding the construction of our fabulous new clubhouse, raising over $465,000. In early July, with great pride, we hung a commemorative plaque celebrating that incredible accomplishment. The plaque was made possible through the efforts of a group designing, manufacturing and framing the plaque, including Jere Dennison, Steve Gillispie, Chip Hall, and, of course, our Executive Secretary Mary Spencer. As I previously communicated, we quickly learned to our chagrin that a number of donors were inadvertently omitted from the plaque due to clerical errors in moving the donor names from spreadsheets to the document which became the plaque. We apologize again for these omissions. The plaque has been taken down until it can be corrected and promptly replaced. Thanks to those same volunteers, and Mary, who are working hard to make it right.

You should have received my email communications regarding the plaque, but to be thorough, in this issue of the Log, we have published a tentatively corrected list of donors, so you can assist us. Please call or email Mary Spencer if you believe you have been omitted or misplaced. Mary has taken advantage of the opportunity to standardize the naming conventions in the list too, so even if you saw your name on the plaque, be sure to check to see that any recent alterations are correct. This replacement process will take a while, but, certainly, we will finish the job by the Closing Dinner (once again, I remind you that the Closing Dinner will be on Saturday, November 7, not Friday, November 6, as first published, and at the Country Club of Virginia James River Clubhouse, NOT the Westhampton Clubhouse, as in the past).

During July, we have had many other accomplishments that give more immediate satisfaction. FBYC's Junior sailors are literally tearing up the Bay. The newer Opti sailors are showing great growth and potential with high finishes and the Laser Radial sailors are mopping up the top awards at almost every outing. Be sure to read the more specific articles in this newsletter to appreciate the incredible accomplishments of these Juniors, our splendid coaches, Junior Division leaders, and the other hard working parents who make it all happen on the road and at home.

Despite the challenging economic environment, the 11th Annual Southern Chesapeake Leukemia Cup Regatta, co-chaired (from the beginning years ago) by Judy Buis and Carolyn Schmalenberger, and supported by a large committee of FBYC members and others from co-host Stingray Harbor Yacht Club and the community, succeeded in raising over $160,000 in contributions and gifts in kind for the cure. Special additional recognition goes to members Carolyn and Joe Schott for food preparation, service and logistics, Jere Dennison for publicity, Rear Commodore David Hinckle for being primary FBYC liaison, and other members of the Regatta Committee from FBYC and elsewhere.

As reported in more detail within, FBYC again provided facilities, boats and coaches for the Middlesex Family YMCA youth sailing program. The YMCA and FBYC are especially grateful to Dr. Ron David for funding a number of scholarships for disadvantaged local youth to this important outreach program, and to Steve Gillespie for taking the children out on his yacht Gratitude.

We should all be proud.

FBYC BOARD HIGHLIGHTS August 2009

Noel Clinard
Commodore

Meeting called to order at 6:05 p.m. by Commodore Noel Clinard.

REAR COMMODORE – DAVID S. HINCKLE

Mayo Tabb
Vice Commodore

TREASURER – Chip Hall presented the Treasurer’s Report and advised that the club is purchasing a new motor for one of the powerboats. David Hinckle advised that the club is going forward with the remaining portion of the bulkhead project.

David Hinckle
Rear Commodore

DOCKS – Tom O’Connell reported that one slip became available this week and he will re-assign it to a boat on the waiting list.

Chip Hall
Treasurer

SOCIAL – Michael Calkins thanked Nica and Jeremy Waters for chairing the July 4th cookout. There were approximately 70 people in attendance.

George Burke
Secretary

GROUNDS – Temporary repairs have been made to the grass ramp. The ramp will be re-graded and seeded in the Fall.

Ted Bennett
Log Streamer

MEMBER-AT-LARGE – Ric Bauer reported that a new Laser rack has been built and there is room to prepare more sail lockers in the barn now that the original lockers have been rented. Ric has been in contact with the Deltaville Fire Department and Rescue Squad to determine if any of their members own tractors that they would be willing to use for launching boats during the Annual One Design Regatta.

WEB MASTER – Strother Scott has posted links to sites for pictures taken at OptiKids, Junior Week and the One Design Long Distance Race that have been sent to him from members.

VICE COMMODORE – C. MAYO TABB, JR.

ONE DESIGN DIVISION – Matt Braun reported that there was moderate participation for the Summer Seabreeze #1 race and very good participation for the Long Distance Race (20 boats representing six fleets). Only a few boats turned out for the Summer Seabreeze #2/ One Design Leukemia Cup race because of bad weather.

CRUISING DIVISION – Ed O’Connor reported that there were six boats on the St. Mary’s Cruise and three or four boats are registered for the Little Bay Family Cruise. The Cruise Regatta is scheduled for July 25. August cruises include the Tides Inn Cruise and the Corrotoman River Cruise to Gordon Nelson’s home. Ed read a thank you letter from the Ocean Cruising Club members who anchored in Jackson Creek on June 2-3 and used the club’s facilities. George Burke discussed the plans for the July 26 Safety and Seamanship Seminar and advised that it would be beneficial for cruisers and racers to attend.

JUNIOR DIVISION – Jay Buhl reported that the OptiKids and Junior Week programs have been completed and Race Teams are in full swing. Jay has been in discussion with CBYRA about the Junior Olympics in 2011 and he is working to establish perpetual trophies for the Virginia State Championships (420/Laser Radial/Opti/Girls Opti).

TROPHIES – John Hubbard reported that the cost of trophies should be under budget this year because he is making use of the daily glasses that were left over from last year.

There being no additional business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:45 p.m.

Membership

FINAL APPROVAL: Mr. & Mrs. Russell T. Aaronson, III; Dr. & Mrs. Gordon B. Cutler, Jr.; Mr. & Mrs. Gary L. Hooper; Mr. & Mrs. Stephen Utley; Mr. & Mrs. Mitchell C. Webb.

Mr. & Mrs. Russell T. Aaronson, III, 1824 Grove Avenue, Richmond, VA 23220. Rusty and Vaughan applied to re-join Fishing Bay Yacht Club. Their previous membership was from January 1995 through January 2005. Rusty served on the Board as Social Chair in 1996 and as One Design Lt. Cdr. in 1997. Rusty raced on Stormking, Firebrand, Glide, Ray-Zor's Edge and in the J-22 and Front Runner fleets. He has competed in Annapolis, Newport, Block Island, Hyannis, Nantucket, Marblehead, and Solomons. In 1999, he sailed across the Atlantic with several FBYC members. Vaughan raced J-29's in Annapolis in the 1990's and sailed Flying Scots in Alexandria. Both attended the Annapolis Sailing School. Rusty and Vaughan recently bought a cottage in Deltaville and plan to spend time there with their two daughters, Kate (age 6) and Taylor (age 4). Kate was enrolled in OptiKids this year. Sponsors: Robert P. Whittemore; David Hazlehurst.

APPLIED FOR MEMBERSHIP: The Membership Committee recommended that these applicants be placed into circulation: Mr. MacGregor S. Lennarz, 2835 Poorhouse Road, Goochland, VA 23063. MacGregor has been sailing for most of his life. He completed youth training through CBYRA Seaman 2nd Class level and has cruised in the Chesapeake Bay, Pacific Northwest, Georgia, Southern Florida and BVI. He recently spent time with David (his uncle) and Alison Lennarz during FBYC's Junior Week. MacGregor is very interested in learning to race and believes FBYC offers many opportunities for him to do so. Sponsors: David Lennarz; R. Noel Clinard.

Mr. Archer H. Ruffin, III, 6951 John Tyler Highway, Charles City, VA 23030. Archer, who will be 17 years of age by the time he receives final approval, has applied for membership as an Associate Junior. He is the grandson of Bill Archer and has been attending Junior Week at FBYC since 1999, sailing Optis and 420's. Archer has been on the Varsity Sailing Team at Christchurch School for two years, has participated in Opti races, has sailed 420's in Bermuda under a nationally ranked coach, and has crewed on a Bristol 48. Not only does he want to learn more about sailing but he would like to have the opportunity to help teach what he already knows. Sponsors: William W. Archer, III; G. Waddy Garrett.

Mr. D. Harrison Scruggs, 2618 Parkwood Avenue, Richmond, VA 23220. Harrison is a full time student at VCU and a newcomer to sailing. He signed up for Crew Training this year and is very enthusiastic about learning everything he can about sailing and racing. He has crewed on Pelican Cay with Willard Strickland and on La Maga with Allan Heyward. In addition, he has served on race committee and has helped Allan with boat work. Sponsors: Allan M. Heyward, Jr.; M. Willard Strickland.

JUNIOR PROGRAM

FBYC JUNIOR SAILING PROGRAM

OPTI KIDS AND JUNIOR WEEK A RECORD-BREAKING SUCCESS!

This year's Opti Kids program succeeded in inspiring another generation of junior sailors, despite often rainy and windy conditions. Thirty-two brave young sailors set out Saturday, June 13th for two weekends of top-notch sailing instruction from Cori Radkte, assisted by Chris Rouzie, Boyd Clary, and a small army of parents and grandparents. Thankfully, most shrieks this year were joyous, as there were few stinging nettles in Fishing Bay.

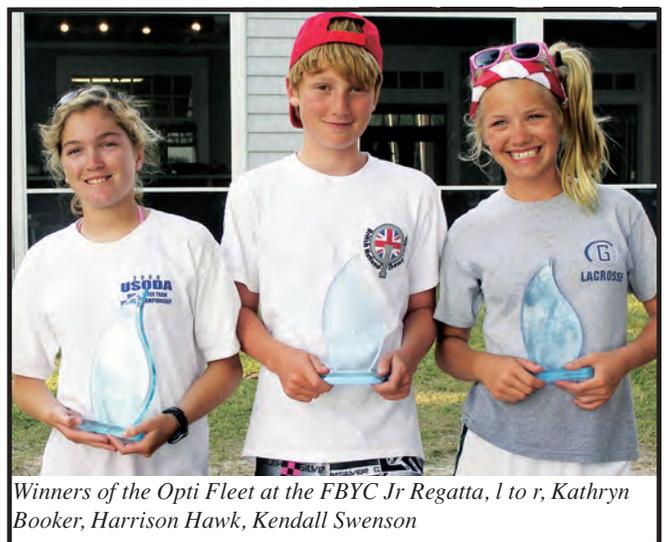

Junior Week began on a gourmet note, with a delicious low-country boil for the Coaches Dinner hosted by Commodore Clinard, Meg Clinard, and their children. It was a beautiful evening and bode well for the week, which commenced with clear skies and an easy 5-10 knots of breeze. Dixon Cole and Paul Howle, aided by Ted Steadman, Art Wildman and Charlie Jones had an armada of motor boats launched, fueled up and ready to go daily. Mark Hayes, Paul Almany, and Nica Waters, assisted by Margaret Patterson, Neil Quimby, Mitchell Webb, and several other helpful parents did a terrific job teaching the 29 Beginner Opti sailors the fundamentals of sailing. Capsizing Optis, sinking Mark's kayak, treasuring hunting, and chasing greased watermelons were all part of the fun, in addition to the more serious work of rigging, knot-tying, learning points of sail, and actually sailing around the octopus mark. Cori Radtke and Boyd Clary, very ably assisted by Alex Jacob, Austin Powers, and Philip Halsey introduced a large Intermediate Opti sailing class of 22 to more advanced sailing skills and basic racing, interspersed with occasional watergun fights, tubing and capsizing drills to keep things light.

Fourteen Racing Opti sailors were fortunate to spend their days soaking up the wisdom and sailing brilliance of U.S. National Opti Team Coach Peter Strong, who was assisted by our own Ben Buhl. The class enjoyed a week of advanced instruction, targeted drills and challenging racing, as did the eight sailors in the Racing Laser class, headed by the talented Alejandro Cloos. The excellent finishes of the Opti and Laser Race Team participants in the regattas following Junior Week evidence the outstanding coaching provided to our sailors by Peter and Alejandro.

Mike Toms and Carrie Russell taught the eight novice 420 sailors the basics and more about double-handed sailing. Their lessons that included advanced sailing physics, such as sailing without a rudder and how to sail blindfolded. Jeremy Waters, Terry Blackwood, and Don Wood all did an exceptional job of introducing the thirteen Group Sailing participants to an array of multi-handed boats, including the Mobjack, Flying Scot and 420. Matt Braun loaned both his Front Runner and his talent to the class; likewise, Art and Jo Wildman kindly took all interested Group Sailors out for an afternoon of exceptionally light air sailing on their Beneteau, Wildwind. If appearances are an accurate indicator, the Group Sailors learned much, including how to fly spinnakers on a range of boats. In all, Junior Week was an exceptional week of learning and fun, thanks to the incredible generosity and talent of numerous volunteers, both on the water and on shore. In particular, FBYC and all the junior week participants want to recognize Jay Buhl and Noel Clinard. Their experience, attention to detail and tireless efforts insured the week's success.

FBYC JUNIOR REGATTA

The boats were barely put away when FBYC hosted 52 boats including 420's, Laser Radials and Opti's at its Junior Regatta the day after Junior Week wrapped. A beautiful day with light to moderate winds welcomed the competitors who came from the northern and southern ends of the Bay to sail in this annual event. Following are the top three winners in each division.

JUNIOR PROGRAM (continued)ANNAPOLIS REGATTA WEEK, AKA, THE JR. REGATTA LOLLAPALOOZA

The week following the 4th of July, the FBYC Junior Racing Team participated in six days of racing in the northern Chesapeake Bay at five different venues. Starting at West River and working their way north to Gibson Island, our sailors made FBYC proud both on and off the water. There were varying breezes throughout the intense week of racing, from light and shifty to a puffy, fresh 15+ knot breeze on day one of the Junior Olympics. These conditions tested the focus and determination of our team, resulting in some spectacular finishes and capsizes along the way. Not only did our sailors post top finishes in the Laser Radial and Opti divisions, they served as true FBYC ambassadors in the smiles and sportsmanship they exhibited on shore. Following are the results of those regattas. Congratulations to all our sailors!

PERSPECTIVE FROM A PARENT OF A NEW JR. RACE TEAM MEMBER

(Ed. note: following is a conversation between Jr. Race Team editor Jacie Swenson and Tricia Herrin)

Q. What does it feel like to be the new kid on the block?

A. The past couple of weeks have been a wonderful experience. The kids on the race team have taken Jeremy in as part of their group and it has been great watching those friendships develop.

Q. What stands out most?

A. I have developed new relationships with moms (and dads!) with which I have a lot in common. They have taken the time to share helpful hints, support and gone out of their way to include me as part of the group.

Q. What do you think about the jr. regatta circuit?

A. The regattas have, for the most part, been fun and also a learning experience. It's amazing to see it all come together. The coaches helping the kids, the kids helping each other and the parents supporting everyone. It is not only a team but a family. We are home [after a week of sailing in the Annapolis area] and although we're happy to be here, we already miss the togetherness and excitement.

Q. Any highlights from the season so far?

A. As we all know, racing has it's highs (Jeremy got his first bullet Sunday at JOs!) and lows (Saturday was not a good day). We are looking forward to the upcoming events and whatever highs or lows we may be facing. Ultimately, at the end of the day, everyone is usually smiling and that's a good thing! Another highlight of the trip was Thursday's regatta at SSA. Both teams did very well and, thanks to Beth Hanna, we were treated to fabulous cupcakes! That's hard to top!

THIRTEEN AREA YOUTH PARTICIPATE IN YMCA SAILING CAMP AT FISHING BAY YACHT CLUB

This past week, thirteen area youth participated in the Middlesex Family YMCA's sailing camp hosted generously by the members of the Fishing Bay Yacht Club in Deltaville. Throughout the week-long camp, participants balanced instructional sessions with practicums on the water. Junior sailors developed a myriad of skill sets that included rigging and de-rigging of sail boats, windward and leeward sailing, trimming the sails, and recovering from capsized boats. "I was amazed at the progression of their skills from Monday to Friday. They learned how critical communication and team work is in sailing, which is a tremendous life lesson to appreciate and comprehend at their age," asserted Director Buzz Lambert.

As a reward for their hard work and progression during the week, FBYC member Steve Gillispie, father of one of the program's sail coaches Dan, took the youth out on the Chesapeake Bay aboard his 44-foot yacht. Each sailor had the opportunity to sit at the "king's or queen's seat" at the yacht's bow to enjoy a cool breeze and breath-taking scenery. "The Fishing Bay Yacht Club is such a tremendous resource for our young sailors. It is gratifying to see so many local youth take interest in an activity that is so prominent in our area. Through the generosity of the FBYC membership and staff, our junior crew had a great time learning how to sail, making new friends, and sharing a memorable and unique experience that will last a lifetime," commented Lambert.

The collaboration between FBYC and the YMCA is a major initiative on the Club's behalf to provide an impactful outreach service to local youth. The Club owns a number of small "one design" sailboats used for training and competition, including a fleet of 420's, Optis, and Lasers. In addition to the YMCA Sailing Camp, the Club hosted its own Junior Week in June. Additional Junior Race Team practices are held throughout the summer and the Race Team travels to regattas up and down the Bay, where its members are leading competitors. Noel Clinard, the current Commodore of FBYC spoke briefly to the youth and their parents at their closing session saying, "This YMCA sailing program is an important part of our club's outreach programs to the local communities. We hope that some of you will consider becoming members of the club one day, and that you will enroll next year in the program or our Junior Week or, with additional training and experience, the Club's Junior Race Team."

Additional information about the Club and its Junior Programs is available on the Club's website: www.fbyc.net.

LEUKEMIA CUP EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS

The 11th Annual Southern Chesapeake Leukemia Cup Regatta held in Deltaville over the weekend of July 10-12 was a big success with 85 registered yachts and enthusiastic crowds at the Auction and Gala helping to raise over an estimated $160,000 in cash and in kind donations to support patients with blood cancers. The total raised came not just from the sailors who competed on the racecourse but also from area business sponsors, led by the presenting sponsor SunTrust Bank, and countless individual community supporters of all the Leukemia Cup events that began in the early spring and culminated with the Regatta held at the Fishing Bay Yacht Club.

Carolyn Norton Schmalenberger, co-chair of the event, said that “the results were far better than expected considering current economic conditions.” Co-chair Judy Buis expressed her gratitude to the sailing community for “close to a record turnout on the race course affirming the event’s reputation as one of the Bay’s premiere competitive sailing events.”

The racing fleets were treated to sun and big breezes on Saturday followed by a drifting match on Sunday in pleasantly cool mid-summer temperatures. The two-day racing format was officiated by principal race officers Brooks Zerkel on the East Course and Lud Kimbrough on the West Course supported by a host of on-the-water volunteers. Overall awards for the top boats in each division were presented on Sunday afternoon following the final race.

But the action at this year’s Leukemia Cup was not confined to the racecourse. Augmented by spacious tents erected on the grounds of the Fishing Bay Yacht Club, members of the Stingray Harbour Yacht Club and other volunteers transformed a grassy plot into the site for the event’s popular fund-raising auction on Friday night and for the Leukemia Cup Gala celebration with food, beverages, and entertainment on Saturday night.

The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society once again was overwhelmed with the level of enthusiasm from the host yacht clubs and the Deltaville and Middlesex communities. Laura Boone, Campaign Coordinator for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, expressed it best when she said that the event supporters, sponsors, organizers, and volunteer workers were “amazing people with huge hearts that share their love of the water to help our patients and their families and for that we are so lucky!”~(\,~ By – Jere Dennison

BLACKBEARD FESTIVAL CRUISE

Twelve boats participated in the June 6th cruise to Hampton for the Blackbeard Festival. FBYC participants included: Running Tide, Wings, Reflections, Miss Kate, Iolar Na Mara, Kittiwake, Song of Joy, Anneleise and Nugget. The FBYC cruisers were joined by guests Fandango and two Hampton boats: Surf Ryder and Wildwind. On Saturday night the group, which totaled 32 people, enjoyed dinner in a private dining room at the Hampton Yacht Club. Delicious food and a beautiful view of the evening fireworks ended a fun day. Sunday, the cruisers sailed past the Navy ships to Norfolk Yacht Club where they again shared hors d'oeuvres on the docks and had dinner in the club. On Monday, the group started back up the Bay and anchored in Mobjack Bay for a potluck dinner, returning to FBYC Tuesday. Great people, great food and fun destinations made this a memorable cruise. We appreciate the gracious welcome FBYC cruisers enjoyed because of our reciprocity with the Hampton and Norfolk Yacht Clubs. By – Stella Jones

JULY 2-5: FIREWORKS CRUISE

On Thursday July 2nd several boats made their way up to St Mary's College in Maryland. By Friday late afternoon we had six boats and 14 people for our cocktail party on the college dock. Boats from FBYC in attendance were Anneleise, Miss Kate, Nugget and Wings. Two other boats invited to join our cruise from Deltaville where Joss and Magic Dragon. After a wonderful selection of appetizers we attended the college's concert on the lawn, Hillary Kole's a 50's 4th. The concert ended with the 1812 Overture followed by Fireworks.

Saturday morning, July 4th, we all left for the Fairport Marina at Reedville, Virginia. We were joined by Obsession and Don and Ann Wickwire by car. The Wickwires spent the night as well. We were early enough that we all made it to the Reedville parade in the afternoon. Cocktails and some appetizers were enjoyed aboard Wings. Dinner was in the Marina's restaurant and again we were treated to another evening of Fireworks.

Thursday through Saturday the weather could not have been better. Sunday started out overcast and finally ended in drizzle most of the day, but no matter we were on our way back to FBYC after a perfect cruise. By – John Koedel Jr.

50TH MOBJACK NATIONALS TO BE HELD AT WARE RIVER AUGUST 21-23

The Mobjacks are coming home to their roots when Ware River Yacht Club hosts a celebration of their 50th National Championship Regatta August 21-23 just off the Mobjack Bay in Gloucester, VA. The regatta includes a reunion sailing event and dinner on Saturday the 22nd. The regatta and reunion events are open to all present and former Mobjack sailors and enthusiasts. An invitation, Notice of Race and Registration Form have been posted on the Mobjack Website at <http://mobjack.tripod.com> and on the CBYRA website at <http://www.cbyra.org/regatta/EventView.aspx?e=44208>. The later includes on-line registration and payment by credit card. Or they can be mailed in to IMA at the address on the Registration Form.

John Ritter of Hampton Yacht Club will be the Principle Race Officer with local knowledge and guidance from Rick Klein. If you would like to participate, please contact Tom Roberts at (804) 843-2682 or mobjack451@cox.net or are interested in helping with Race Committee contact Tom or Rick Klein at (804) 693-5629. (Article continued on next page)

If you want to put your Mobjack back on the water or borrow one to sail or race, join us for dinner or can help with one or more days of Race Committee we would like to hear from you. Racers will need to be or become members of the class, but reunion participants do not.

There are two events leading up to the big event that will allow you to practice, tune up and get back in the Mobjack groove. We anticipate good Mobjack participation in the 45th Governors Cup Regatta the first weekend in August (1st and 2nd) at Ware River and the 70th Annual Regatta at Fishing Bay the weekend before, August 15 and 16.

CRUISE TO THE CORROTOMAN RIVER: AUGUST 29-30

Sail to Gordon and Shelia Nelson's home on the Western Branch for a party. Location is 37 44.056 / 076 30.646 or about 5 miles up the Corrotoman from the #2 entrance day marker or 20 some miles from FBYC. We're on the right or northeast side. We have a couple of slips here and I could arrange for a slip or two at our neighbors. The anchorage is very good just off our dock and fairly well sheltered from all winds. I have a dinghy I can ferry people back and forth with. We also have a couple of kayaks for people to use. I'll have a sizable grill and another if needed. I have a picnic table, dock, water, electricity, bathrooms, and what ever else the group needs. Please register no later than June 8 on the website or with Gordon so he will be able to prepare for us. Everyone should bring something to grill, and a side dish to share. BYOL: mixers and soft drinks to be supplied. Register on line or with Gordon and Shelia. Gordon and Shelia Nelson, 804-462-0095 or grnsail@aol.com

MID BAY CRUISE: SEPTEMBER 19-25

Isn't it about time to have a cruise that emphasizes anchoring and relaxing with peaceful fellowship together on the water? This cruise will hold forth these possibilities while at the same time providing an option for docking and exploring ashore, or just taking a dinghy tour to a restaurant if another night in the galley seems tiresome. On Saturday 9/19, cruisers will embark for anchorage or docking at Onancock, with the option for an evening at a local restaurant. Sunday will be a day of touring, reading and listening, and dinner aboard, preceded by cocktails together on the boat of choice or by raft-up. On Monday, cruisers will sail a short leg to Crisfield, crab capital of Maryland, followed by a pot luck cookout at Somers Cove Marina, where there's plenty of anchoring room and rental slips as well as a good dinghy docking facility. A second day at Crisfield offers the possibilities of a waterman's museum visit, touring the Crisfield Fishing Center and the chandleries of Maryland Avenue, or a chartered ride to Smith Island. Well rested cruisers will then sail a longer leg to Solomon's island Maryland on Wednesday, a Thursday layover for shopping and museum hopping, and a sail back to Reedville on Friday for Saturday's crab fest (see separate write up for this event). Chaired by Fay and John Koedel and Lyons and George Burke. Please register at www.fbyc.net or contact George at burkeg@paraccess.com or cell 804-516-8600.

ANNUAL CRAB FEAST AND SAILING WEEKEND: SEPTEMBER 26-27

How often can you go out for a short overnight sail and enjoy some of the Bay's finest, freshest delights for dinner. For the last 5 years, we have had a Crab Feast at the end of our Fall Cruise at the Fairport Marina and Restaurant in Reedville. Fairport's owner, Roy Headley, is a local crabber. This may be the reason the crabs served are the best and biggest and cooked to perfection. In any case, if you are not a "picker," you can eat off of the menu or the seafood buffet. Last year our "pickers" did a great job and may have set a new record for crabs consumed.

Docking at the marina is easy and relatively inexpensive. It is an easy 20 nm trip when the wind is not howling out of the north going or the south returning. So plan to sail to this event and enjoy a fun afternoon and evening. You will not regret coming and that is a promise.

The cost for the event will be determined later. Chaired by Ed and Diane O'Connor. Please register at www.fbyc.net or contact ej.oconnor@verizon.net or call 804-338-1142 (C).
